T-NET PASTORAL TRAINING MALAWI & ZIMBABWE

2019 Valley Short-Term Mission Trips

February 20-March 3 | June 19-30 | November 6-17

Teaching T-Net Curriculum: Training African pastors to multiply disciples and finish The Great Commission in Malawi and Zimbabwe.

From 2007-2010, we trained 16 pastors in Cameroon, West Africa. They have now trained over 1000 pastors! Cameroon's T-Net program is now self-funded and led by nationals. From 2010-2013, we trained church leaders in Tanzania. Now, over 300 are in training. They are self-led and plan to become self-funded in 2019.

In Lilongwe, Malawi's capital, our First-Generation class of 18 graduated in June, 2018. They've started Second -Generation centers, which have in turn launched Third-Generation centers. We've also trained in the financial city of Blantyre, which has begun its Second-Generation centers. Over 500 church leaders are now being trained in Malawi. Valley is currently teaching graduate-level courses, as well as First-Generation Courses 6-10 in Blantyre.

A First-Generation center in Harare, Zimbabwe will begin in October 2018. Part of Valley's team will teach courses there after providing graduate-level teaching in Lilongwe.

Mark Buchanan, Doug Christgau, Bill Jefferis, and Tim Ponzani have led past teams, but we must develop more leaders and teachers to complete this critical training.

Why this trip? Churches led by T-Net trained pastors increase in attendance, giving, conversions, trained leaders, and growing disciples. God is using Valley teams to bring dramatic changes to African churches, where nominalism and heresy are common. T-Net provides hope and vision for church leaders in these two countries where per-capita incomes are less than half of those in Haiti.

Hosts: Pastor Eugene Chinunga, T-Net Country Director in Lilongwe, and Pastor Khetwayo Banda in Blantyre.

Participants needed: Two teachers and one administrator/teacher for both locations, per trip.
